Course name:	Intercultural Communication and Leadership (in English)
Course number:	COMM 3301 CSCS (ENG)
Programs offering course:	International Business and Culture Program
Language of instruction:	English
U.S. Semester Credits:	3 semester hours/ 4.5 quarter hours
Contact Hours:	45
Term:	Fall 2019

Course Description

In this class, you will develop skills, knowledge, and understanding that will help you communicate and engage more appropriately and effectively in [host city] as well as in other intercultural contexts. We will explore various topics in intercultural communication in the context of your experience abroad and will practice intercultural learning processes that you can apply when working across difference in a wide variety of contexts. You will increase your own cultural self-awareness and develop personal leadership skills to help you become more effective in an interdependent world.

Learning Objectives

By participating in this course, you will:

- Increase your own self-awareness, particularly your cultural self-awareness.
- Develop a deeper understanding of the field of intercultural communication and intercultural concepts/theories and their relevance to your own experience in the host culture.
- Increase your ability to recognize and bridge cultural gaps.
- Develop an intercultural leadership practice that helps you translate your culture-specific and culture-general knowledge into moment-to-moment competence.

Course Prerequisites

None, apart from an open mind and a sincere interest in exploring things intercultural, which will involve a deep level of self-reflection.

Methods of Instruction

Learning will involve in-class exercises, active reflection, discussion, readings, critical analysis papers, short lectures, and out-of-class activities that help you engage in the local cultural context on a deeper level.

Online Learning Tool: CANVAS

We will be using CANVAS as an online learning tool for the class. The class syllabus will be posted on this site, along with the readings, homework assignments, study guides, Power Points from lecture, and discussion questions for readings (if applicable). Papers and Assignments will also be turned in on the CANVAS platform. It is the student's responsibility to check the site frequently.

*Please note that "final grades" listed in CANVAS may not coincide with the course final grade as posted by your sending institution—CANVAS does not show students' final grade for the course.

Assessment and Final Grade

Grading will be based on the following:

- | | |
|--|-----|
| 1. Critical Analysis Papers (3): | 20% |
| 2. Homework & Cultural Partner activities: | 20% |
| 3. Midterm Exam | 20% |
| 4. Final Digital Storytelling project: | 20% |
| 5. Class participation: | 20% |

Course Requirements

Critical Analysis Papers

Students will be required to complete three Critical Analysis Papers. These short analytical writings provide you with the opportunity to reflect upon the class material and to critically analyze and apply materials from class and the readings to your experiences in the host culture. Critical Analysis Papers should be 3-4 pages in length, 1.5 spaced, with 12pt Times New Roman font. Specific details for each assignment will be discussed in class and posted in the assignment.

Critical Analysis Papers:

1. Culture in Context
2. Self-Awareness
3. Intercultural Growth

All CAP assignments should be turned in on CANVAS by their due date. Be aware that assignments may overlap. Assignments not turned in by their due dates will be assigned a 5-point penalty (e.g., 90 to 85) for each day that it is late. Assignments will not be accepted after 2 days if not accompanied by a doctor's note.

Students will be required to provide peer feedback (posted to CANVAS) on 2 Critical Analysis Papers of a classmate; details of the Peer Review will be posted to CANVAS.

Critical Analysis Reports will be graded on a simplified 0-100 scale according to the CAP Grading Rubric which can be found on CANVAS under Files. I also suggest that you review the Critical Thinking Standards as well as the Intercultural Knowledge and Competence Value Rubric, which will help you when reflecting on your personal intercultural development. Both are located on the class platform under Recommended Readings.

Required reading: "About Critical Analysis Assignments"

Required reading: Critical Thinking Standards and IKC VALUE Rubric

Homework & Cultural Partner Activities

Homework, Cultural Partner Activities and completion of Peer Feedback will be graded on a 100-point scale—if the assignment is fully completed students will receive full credit (100 points) for the assignment. If the assignment is incomplete or late, students will receive partial or no credit for the assignment.

Homework will include assigned readings and activities to complete outside of class. You are responsible for completing the homework outlined in the syllabus and asking for clarification when needed. You should bring copies of any readings due that day to each class with you, as we may need to reference the readings in class.

As part of this course, you are required to identify a Cultural Partner—someone who has been a resident of the host culture for many years—with whom you will need to complete several activities throughout the semester. More information about choosing a Cultural Partner will be provided in class.

Students will be administered at least one quiz during the term related to required readings, the quiz will be administered via Canvas.

Students will be required to peer review 2 Critical Analysis Papers of a classmate; details of the Peer Review will be discussed in class.

Midterm Exam

The midterm will comprise of multiple choice, short essay, and/or matching questions and will cover required class readings and class lectures.

Final Digital Storytelling Project

As a final project for this course, you will be creating a Digital Story. Digital Storytelling involves short (three- to five-minute) first-person stories combined with still images (and often music). Through this means, you will share your own personal story of the study abroad experience. More information will be provided soon. You will need access to iMovie (for Macs) or Windows Movie Maker (for PCs), both available to download for free.

Attendance

Students are not allowed to miss class for unjustified reasons. For each unexcused absence, the participation portion of the grade will be lowered. Hence, it will be very difficult to receive a 100 in the class. Please keep this in mind. If a student misses class three times without a valid excuse (a note from a physician in the event of an illness), then the professor will automatically lower the final grade by 5 points (on a 100-point scale) for each class missed thereafter. Students with 6 or more absences will fail the course.

Students should arrive to class on time. Arriving more than 15 minutes late for a class will count as an unexcused absence. Please note that an excused absence is one that is accompanied by a doctor's note: signed stamped and dated. Travelling and/or travel delays are not considered valid reasons for missing class. * Notes from a physician will only be valid and admitted by the Program Manager if the doctor confirms that the visit could not have been arranged at another time, or that the student was too ill to attend class that day.

Class Participation

The principle goal of this class is help you to become better communicators in the intercultural context; as such, ACTIVE participation in classroom lectures, discussions, and activities is a must.

Students will be expected to listen attentively to others' views, respectfully express their own and make meaningful contributions to class discussions.

Note-taking and completion of assigned readings (and reflection upon them) is an important component of participation. Students that do not consistently participate in discussion nor read the assigned readings cannot receive an A in participation.

Laptop Policy

The use of laptop to consult class-readings is permitted in class. However, if students misuse laptops for activities unrelated to the class they will no longer be permitted to utilize.
