COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed for the student interested in developing his or her linguistic competencies as a Spanish-English translator. In order to do so, the course will integrate linguistic, socio-cultural and documentation (utilization of translation tools) knowledge with the acquisition of strategies of reading comprehension, written expression and, naturally, translation. The linguistic knowledge to be developed throughout the course will not only include grammatical and terminological competencies, but also textual (mechanisms of coherence and cohesion) and pragmatic (textual types and genres, linguistic varieties) competencies as well. These skills will be complemented by the study of the principal aspects of the theory of translation.

The course is divided into two parts: an introduction to the theory and practice of translation; followed by an exploration of specialized translation (literary, technical, scientific, or audiovisual).

PREREQUISITES

This course is intended for non-native Spanish speaking students with an advanced level of Spanish.

METHODOLOGY

As an eminently practical course, a series of exercises and activities will be carried out, such as the production of personal translations, as well as critiques and evaluations of already existing translations. The student will work on direct translations (when translated into the language of the mother tongue) and indirect translations (the inverse). The theory of translation will be addressed through weekly readings of a series of articles and chapters, some of which will be discussed during the following class. Finally, activities may be completed individually, in pairs or in groups both inside and outside of the classroom.

GRADING

CIEE classes are not graded on a curve nor is there extra credit work. The final grade will be based upon the following criteria:

- Participation and assignments 25%
- Essay and presentation (group) 25%
- Mid-term 25% (2 translations = 12.5% each)
- Final Exam 25% (2 translations = 12.5% each)

Exams and class presentations will take place on the date announced, except in cases of excused absences. If this happens, the test or presentation will take place when the teacher deems appropriate, after of absence has been confirmed as excused (for medical reasons or otherwise).

All assignments must be submitted in the following format:

Font: Times New Roman
Size: 12
Spacing: Double
Margins: 2.5 centimeters
Alignment: Justified

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Attendance policy

Students are not allowed to miss class for unjustified reasons. For each unexcused absence, the participation portion of the grade will be lowered. Hence, it will be very difficult to receive a 100 in the class. Please keep this in mind.

If a student misses class once without a valid excuse (a note from a physician in the event of an illness), then the professor will automatically lower the final grade by 10 points (on a 100-point scale) for each class missed thereafter. Students with 3 or more absences will fail the course.

Students should arrive to class on-time. Arriving more than 15 minutes late for a class will count as an unexcused absence. Please note that an excused absence is one that is accompanied by a doctor's note: signed stamped and dated. Travelling and/or travel delays are not considered valid reasons for missing class.

Academic Honesty

Students are expected to act in accordance with their university and CIEE's standards of conduct concerning plagiarism and academic dishonesty. Use of online translators for work in Spanish will result in an automatic failure.

Linguistic Resource Center

Due to the nature of this course, students may not use the Writing Center for help on their assignments, given that these assignments will be discussed in class, and any previous corrections would only detract from the learning process. On the other hand, it is recommended that students use this Writing Center to help improve their written expression in Spanish.
