Course description:

The Beginning Spanish Language I course is designed to provide a basic introduction to the Spanish language. The primary objective is to help students to acquire the communication skills needed to survive alongside native Spanish speakers including their Costa Rican homestay families.

The purpose of the course is to develop language skills through focused tasks, reading and listening comprehension exercises, vocabulary practice, lessons on grammar, oral and written expression, and fun, interactive activities. The focus is on conversation, possibly involving other students in the class or local people; the instructor serves only as moderator. The program involves activities inside and outside the classroom such as doing interviews, dramatizing real or imaginary situations, and exploring culture through different media, such as newspapers, literature, cinema, music, and legends. Homework assignments include exercises from the textbook, preparing oral presentations, writing simple letters, and participating in community projects or activities.

Learning Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, the student will

- 1) be familiar with grammatical content including irregular verbs in present tense (o changes for ue; e changes for ie); irregular verbs in present tense (e changes for i); irregular verbs in past tense (Groups 1, 2, 3); gender and number with adjectives; imperfect past tense; commands; present progressive tense (estar + gerundio); estar + participio; ser and estar; tener, hacer and haber; the special verb gustar; ir and ser; direct object pronouns and indirect object pronouns; prepositions por and para; adverbs that end in -mente; hace + que + expression.
- 2) possess vocabulary and phrases related to greetings, prices, kinship, cardinal numbers, months and days of the year, countries, people, domestic animals, food and beverages, sports, hobbies, entertainment, clothes, numbers, institutions, opposites words, weather, seasons, natural phenomena, parts of the house, personal objects, cookware, illnesses, expressions of time, transportation, media, means of transportation, expressions with adverbs (por, arriba, abajo, delante, atrás, un lado); false cognates
- 3) be familiar with select Costa Rican expressions (Costarrriqueñismos)

Additionally the student will have a foundation for:

- 4) giving and receiving simple information that satisfies immediate needs
- 5) using select verbs in the past, present, and future tenses

- 6) negotiating purchases in shops, markets, and restaurants
- 7) asking for and giving the time and giving and receiving information about schedules

Course Prerequisites:

None. Each student is placed into a particular level depending on his/her linguistic skills, as assessed in an initial placement exam.

Methods of Instruction:

The method used is based on ACTFL (American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages) and MCER (Marco común europeo de referencia para las lenguas: aprendizaje, enseñanza y evaluación).

Content is imparted through conversations, songs, readings, stories, and poetry, adapted to the level. In addition, students play Spanish-language board games, make oral presentations, write essays, and have dialogues and conduct interviews with locals in and out of the classroom. In addition, they are assigned daily homework from their textbook and workbook.

Assessment and Final Grade:

Students are evaluated on:

a- Preparation	5%
b- Participation	10%
c- Oral presentation	5%
d- Quizzes	20%
