Course description:

Intermediate Spanish Language II is designed for students who demonstrate mastery of basic vocabulary and grammar in conversational Spanish and who show a capacity for excelling at intermediate-level material. The primary goal is help the student acquire communication skills that will permit the student to carry on conversations with native Spanish speakers, and especially with their homestay families, centered on topics and concepts of moderate complexity.

The course seeks to develop conversational language skills through focused tasks, lessons on the use of grammatical structures, exercises for reading and listening comprehension, a great deal of interaction and conversation, and activities that are engaging and interactive. Lessons and activities may be conducted inside or outside the classroom, and can include interviews, dramatizing real or imaginary situations, and exploring language and culture through different media, such as newspapers, literature, cinema, music, and legends. Homework assignments include exercises from the Costa Rican-authored novel La Loca de Gandoca, the CPI workbook (Tareas #2), or internet research, for instance, to prepare oral presentations.

Learning Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, the student will

- 1) have an enhanced understanding and improved use of Spanish grammar acquired in previous experiences with Spanish (e.g., SPAN 2001 MTVE)
- 2) have improved use of the Spanish vocabulary as well as Costa Rican expressions (Costarriqueñismos) acquired in previous experiences with Spanish (e.g., SPAN 2001 MTVE)

The student will also acquire

3. an enhanced understanding and improved use of grammatical content, including, including: simple future and future progressive tenses; simple and complex conditional tenses; past perfect tense; past progressive tense; pluperfect tense; present tense in subjunctive mode; imperfect tense in subjunctive mode; participles; gerunds; the passive voice; prepositions and verbs with prepositions; direct and indirect objects, alone and together and with the imperative mood; comparisons; demonstrative pronouns; the pronoun tú.

- 4. an expanded vocabulary, including words and phrases related to more complex farewells, traditional games, types of work, decoration, hygiene, furniture, the Costa Rican education system, apologies, permissions, refusals, cardinal directions, adverbs of place, literature, architecture, science and technology, terms of politeness, false cognates, political parties, economy, public services, news, medicine, the government, social security

Additionally, following the completion of the course, the student will

- 5) better understand the content of print materials aimed at the Costa Rican public (e.g., advertisements, newspapers, flyers)
- 6) communicate better his or her own biography, or relate events that occurred in the past to him/her or family members
- 7) be better able to give orders as well as interpret orders given by others
- 8) make better use of irregular verbs in all tenses
- 9) engage more fully in oral presentations both as a listener and presenter
- 10) be able to express opinions on the novel, La Loca de Gandoca

Course Prerequisites:

None. Each student is placed into a particular level depending on his/her linguistic skills, as assessed in an initial placement exam.

Methods of Instruction:

The method used is based on ACTFL (American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages) and MCER (Marco común europeo de referencia para las lenguas: aprendizaje, enseñanza y evaluación).

Content is imparted through conversations, songs, readings, stories, and poetry, adapted to the level. In addition, students play Spanish-language board games, make oral presentations, write essays, and have dialogues and conduct interviews with locals in and out of the classroom. In addition, they are assigned daily homework from their novel and workbook.
