Course Description

This course aims to give learners a communicative skill in speaking and writing to enable them to be independent users of French DELF B1, B2 levels. This course basically includes a component on linguistic tools, speech and the vocabulary essential to communicate and interact easily in a French environment. Comprehension and oral expression exercises, comprehension and written expression exercises as well as many other exercises on morphosyntax will be added to this component.

Learning Objectives

- Comprehension and oral expression: being able to understand the main ideas of oral messages, to produce a simple and coherent discourse and debate about society and current topics.
- Comprehension and written expression: being able to understand a wide range of written documents and write structured texts.
- Knowledge of the language: to know the language tools (grammar, conjugation, vocabulary) and be able to adequately use them to ensure the correction of the language.

Course Prerequisites

Students must have completed the initiation level (100 to 120 hours) and experience a morphosyntax and vocabulary that enable them to understand and produce different types of oral and written messages in the Delf A2 level.

Methods of Instruction

We rely on the communicative methods of interactive type that go from listening, observing a statement to the development of grammatical rules after students' analysis and identification and before exercises of practice and evaluation.

Assessment and Final Grade

Learners will do written and oral tests and assessments will be as follows:

- Attendance and learner's participation: 20%
- Formative assessment
 - *Written assignment(written production) :20%
 - *Connaissance de la langue (grammar, conjugation etc.) :20%
 - *Expression orale:20%
- Final exam: Language Proficiency Interviews (LPI):20%.

Course Requirements

Attendance and participation

Class attendance, learner's motivation and participation are essential

Formative Assessment

It is composed of assignments and presentations done in class or research done at home at the end of a teaching unit and in consultation with learners.

Regular assessment of individual language progress is an integral part of this course. Throughout the semester students will be evaluated on the different components of the course and will be given feedback on specific points or problems they encounter

Formative assessment includes:

- Tests on the knowledge of French (grammar, conjugation etc.) in class
- Assignments (reinforcement exercises)
- oral activities (presentation ...)
- creative written work
- role play
- Etc.

Final exam: Language Proficiency Interviews

It encompasses the entire program and focuses on the knowledge of the language and the four communication skills

The productions are scored based on the following criteria: appropriateness of answers, quality of presentation, pronunciation / articulation, grammar / spelling, vocabulary, consistency...

NB: The LPI (Language Proficiency Interview) is an oral interview between the teacher and the student. Students should respond appropriately and in detail to the teacher's questions. This will allow the tester (teacher) to assess the quality and quantity of the student's production/transcript (use of correct grammatical structures, appropriate vocabulary, flow, spontaneity etc.) At the end of the interview, the teacher will assign a language level that corresponds /to the student's production based on the levels at CIEE (Beginning 1, Beginning 2, Intermediate 1, Intermediate 2, Advanced 1 and Advanced 2)
