Course Description

Students will gain an understanding of the issues and processes involved in developing an international marketing and branding strategy and plan, as well as the execution of marketing and PR operations on an international scale. Course content and practical assignments focus on real-world problems such as identifying and evaluating opportunities in international markets, developing and adapting marketing tactics in relation to multiple, specific national market needs and constraints, and coordinating marketing and branding strategies in global markets. Guest lectures by local business professionals and company visits provide first-hand context and experience for the issues explored in the course.

Learning Objectives

By the conclusion of this course, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate understanding through specific examples of intercultural sensitivity in international marketing
- Use case studies to evaluate and identify the elements that contribute to successful and unsuccessful international marketing plans
- Distinguish between the elements required for local versus international marketing (generally) and in the German / European international markets (specifically)
- Create a sample international marketing plan for a real or hypothetical business, outlining the entire strategic process.

Course Prerequisites

One prior introductory course in principles of marketing and / or marketing management is strongly recommended.

Methods of Instruction

Instruction will be supported by a mix of authentic and secondary materials, including films and case studies. The main classroom activity is discussion, initiated by short lectures and informed by the assigned materials. Readings are assigned to help students gain familiarity with key ideas and terms, which they will then be expected to integrate into their oral and written work (including the term paper and a final exam). Active engagement in class will be enhanced through student-led presentations, and the connection and relevance of the course to Berlin will be illustrated with a field trip to at least one local company that represents a global brand.

Assessment and Final Grade

Midterm Exam	25%
Final Exam	25%
Oral Presentation	25%
Cases Study Analysis & Discussions	25%

Course Requirements

Midterm and Final Exam

Tests are designed to assess student comprehension and ability to articulate core concepts related to international marketing. Questions regarding material covered in class and during the visit to a local company will be given. Grading will depend on the accuracy and logic of the answers, as well as on the business English language used.

Oral Presentation

Students are required to prepare and present the marketing program of a German / Berlin brand. These include: Zalando, Rocket Internet, Air Berlin, KaDeWe, Bombardier Transportation, Axel Springer, among other. Guidelines will be provided for this 15-20 minute presentation, followed by a Q&A session. Presentations will start in the second or third week of the term.

Case Study Analysis & Discussions

Students are required to participate in the discussions that take place in class. Throughout the course there will be several case studies, and it is extremely important that students read and analyze these cases prior to the class discussion. Grading will be dependent on quality not on the quantity of the student's participation in the case study analysis and discussions.

Visit to a Local Company

We will visit a local company to learn from their managers the marketing actions they undertake in order to achieve the business objectives. This field trip is mandatory and there will be a report assigned after the trip. It is expected that this report will contain the main elements learned during the visit, as well as the personal thoughts of the student as to what s/he learned during the visit.

Participation

As part of your work in this course, students should demonstrate learning beyond the submission of written assignments or presentations. As such, all students receive grades based upon participation.

Participation is valued as meaningful contribution in the digital and tangible classroom, utilizing the resources and materials presented to students as part of the course. Students receive grades based upon their contributions both in the classroom and in the Canvas course.

Meaningful contribution requires students to be prepared, as directed by the Instructor, in advance of each class session. Students must clearly demonstrate they have engaged with the materials where directed.

This includes valued or informed engagement in, for example, small group discussions, online discussion boards, peer-to-peer feedback (after presentations), interaction with guest speakers, and attentiveness on co-curricular and outside-of-classroom activities.

Attendance Policy

Regular class attendance is required throughout the program, and all unexcused absences will result in a lower participation grade for any affected CIEE course. Due to the intensive schedules for Open Campus and Short Term programs, unexcused absences that constitute more than 10% of the total course sessions will also result in a lower final grade.

Students who transfer from one CIEE class to another during the add/drop period will not be considered absent from the first session(s) of their new class, provided they were marked present for the first session(s) of their original class. Otherwise, the absence(s) from the original class carry over to the new class and count against the grade in that class.

For CIEE classes, excessively tardy (over 15 minutes late) students must be marked absent. Attendance policies also apply to any required co-curricular class excursion or event, as well as to Internship, Service Learning, or required field placement. Students who miss class for personal travel will be marked as absent and unexcused. No make-up or re-sit opportunity will be provided.

An absence in a CIEE course will only be considered excused if:

- a doctor's note is provided
- a CIEE staff member verifies that the student was too ill to attend class
- satisfactory evidence is provided of a family emergency

Attendance policies also apply to any required class excursion, with the exception that some class excursions cannot accommodate any tardiness, and students risk being marked as absent if they fail to be present at the appointed time.

Unexcused absences will lead to the following penalties:

Percentage of Total Course Hours Missed	Equivalent Number of Open Campus Semester classes	Minimum Penalty
Up to 10%	1	No academic penalty
10 – 20%	2	Reduction of final grade
More than 20%	3 content classes, or 4 language classes	Automatic course failure, and possible expulsion
